The ladies of the Circuit Court Clerk’s Office joined women across the world in furthering their commitment to promoting women’s rights and empowerment on International Women’s Day which is celebrated each year on March 8th during Women’s History Month. A reel was posted to our social media outlets consisting of quotes from influential women selected and reenacted by our team members. In the words of our former First Lady Michelle Obama, “There’s no limit to what we, as women, can accomplish.”

In The Community

Our Community Engagement team participated in a reverse career fair with juniors and seniors at Lawson High School. A reverse career fair is a type of fair where students are stationed at tables with printed handouts and/or a digital presentation showcasing themselves to the employer. This event was sponsored by JAG (Jobs for America's Graduates) Tennessee.

Congratulations to the Family Safety Center on 5 years of hope and healing! Our Order of Protection clerks work closely with the OFS to ensure safety for all families in the Nashville–Davidson County community.

Employee Appreciation 2024

National Employee Appreciation Day is celebrated on the first Friday of March each year; however, our administration goes the extra mile in celebrating our dynamic team members all month long. This year's theme: Together, we're stronger, reminds us how important each member of our team is to the overall effectiveness of the organization.
