

THE DAY TIMES

A MONTHLY PUBLICATION OF THE CIRCUIT COURT CLERK’S OFFICE OF METRO NASHVILLE – DAVIDSON COUNTY

PIECING IT ALL TOGETHER

This summer, the Circuit Court Clerk's Office has been proud to welcome 12 outstanding interns, each bringing enthusiasm, curiosity, and a commitment to learning as they gain firsthand experience in public service.

In late June, interns gathered for Piecing It All Together, a mid-summer check-in where they reflected on their experiences, shared memorable moments from the courtroom, and discussed the meaningful work they've contributed to throughout the office.

On July 8, the group celebrated another milestone as they were officially sworn in during a ceremony presided over by Judge Robin Kimbrough-Hayes, Division V General Sessions Court. The ceremony marked an important step in their journey and recognized their dedication to serving the public with integrity and professionalism.

Inside This Issue:

● Piecing It All Together	Pg. 1
● Family Fun Day '26	Pgs. 2-3
● In The Community	Pgs. 4-5
● Trial Verdicts	Pg. 6
● Department Numbers	Pg. 7

We are incredibly grateful for the energy, fresh perspectives, and hard work our interns have brought to the Circuit Court Clerk's Office. We look forward to watching them continue to learn, grow, and make a lasting impact throughout the remainder of the summer.

A FAMILY REUNION TO REMEMBER

The halls of both courthouses were filled with excitement during our inaugural Spirit Week, as team members celebrated everything from Monochrome Monday to Clerk Pride Friday. Each themed day brought laughter, creativity, and friendly fun, reminding us that when we come together, we strengthen the sense of family that makes our organization so special.

That spirit carried into our 4th Annual Family Fun Day, where employees and their loved ones gathered for an afternoon of fellowship, laughter, and friendly competition. Despite the summer heat, everyone enjoyed activities including the Hula Hoop Hustle, Water Balloon Toss, and the always-anticipated Tug-of-War Tournament, where Admin/IT/Records claimed this year's championship title.

The Kids Zone was a new favorite destination, featuring bubbles, chalk, face painting, and the annual water balloon fight—a tradition that never disappoints!

The celebration also included our Quarterly Recognition Awards, honoring team members who continue to exemplify service excellence.

Congratulations to our Q3 recipients:

Dana Fredericks, Apiphany Turner, Fred Kilpatrick, Kina Craig, and Belinda Collins.

Family Fun Day continues to remind us that while we work together every day, taking time to celebrate alongside our families strengthens the relationships that make our team feel like home.

In The Community

Inspiring The Next Generation

Throughout the summer, Clerk Day had the opportunity to encourage young people through two meaningful speaking engagements.

On June 25, he spoke with students participating in a summer enrichment program hosted by KEVA, Inc. and Why We Can't Wait at Cleveland Street Missionary Baptist Church, sharing his journey from growing up in Nashville to becoming the 20th Circuit Court Clerk. He encouraged students to dream big, set goals, work hard, and remember that no goal is too big when they believe in themselves and stay committed to achieving it.

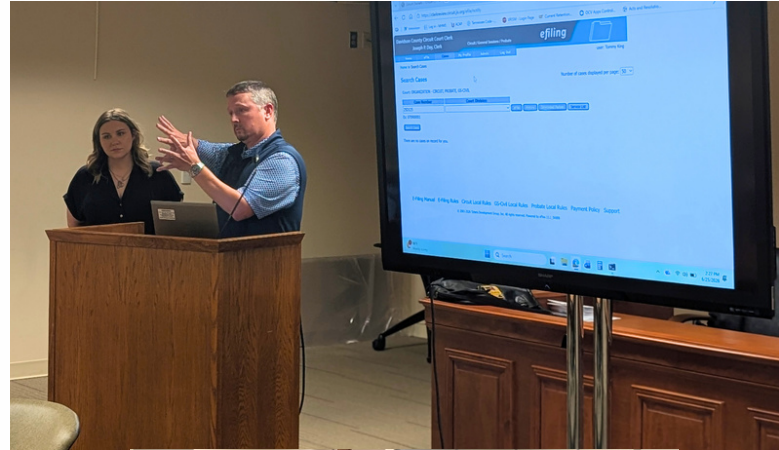

On July 14, Clerk Day welcomed high school students participating in the CUPS Civic Summer Workshops for a Lunch & Learn, introducing them to the important work of the Circuit Court Clerk's Office and the many ways local government serves the community.

Supporting The Legal Community

The Circuit Court Clerk's Office was also proud to participate in the New Attorney Orientation, hosted by Judge Stephanie Williams, Fourth Circuit Court. Chief Clerk of Special Projects and Operations Tommy King and Circuit Court Clerk's Office Team Lead Chelsia Follett represented the office, providing new attorneys with an overview of Circuit Court operations and highlighting resources including CaseLink, E-Filing, the CCC App, and the Circuit Court Clerk website.

Celebrating Pride in Nashville

Our Community Engagement team proudly participated in the 2026 Pride Parade on June 27, joining thousands of Nashvillians in celebrating a community built on inclusion, respect, and belonging. The event provided another opportunity to connect with residents while supporting a celebration that honors the diversity of our city and reminds us that every person deserves to feel seen, valued, and welcomed.
